

CHEYENNE POLICE

Protecting the legend...

Are You Interested in Volunteering?

The Cheyenne Police Department Victim Assistance Program is searching for compassionate and professional individuals to work in the field of victim advocacy. A CPD Volunteer Advocate is not a counselor but a trained-system advocate who can support victim(s) throughout the criminal justice process. Additionally, CPD Victim Volunteer Advocates are required to complete a 40-hour Victim Services, community-based training and engage in outreach platforms to provide resources to the community.

Please provide the following contact information:

Full Name: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Phone Number: (Home) _____ (Cell) _____
Email address: _____

Volunteers for the Cheyenne Police Department will be required to complete the following criteria prior to attending 40-hour training:

- CPD Personal History Statement and Application
- Abuse/Neglect Registry Prescreen for DFS
- Fingerprinting for Wyoming Criminal history from DCI
- UA Drug Screening
- In-person interview with hiring panel

Please mail or drop off Volunteer form to:
