PACT Meeting Invitation

CHEYENNE, Wyo.— The Police and Community Together (PACT) committee is an organization serving as a volunteer support group for the Cheyenne Police Department. Members contribute their time and talents to help promote public safety, provide input into policing services, form a liaison between the community and the police department and assist in educating the public for a better understanding of the responsibilities of the police and a responsible citizenship.

Citizen participation is fundamental to achieving the PACT goals and the committee would like to extend an invitation to the public to attend the meeting from 5:30pm until 6:30pm where a class on verbal de-escalation will be presented by Lt. Janes of the Cheyenne Police Department. The class will be held Thursday February 6 at the Cheyenne Public Safety Center 1st Floor Community Room.
