CHEYENNE POLICE DEPARTMENT
ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES CONCERNING
RESIDENTIAL NOISE PERMITS

The following criteria is used by the Chief of Police as an administrative guideline when reviewing and considering applications submitted for a residential noise permit, including any police officer response required during an event. It is understood that the purpose of this permit is for small, private neighborhood or residential social gatherings not advertised to the general public for attendance.

CRITERIA:

1. Application and fee must be submitted to the City Clerk's office a minimum of two (2) working days prior to the proposed event/activity.
2. Applications may be approved on the condition the noise permit is effective not sooner than 6:00 a.m. nor later than 10 p.m. Proof of written permission from adjacent neighbors (minimum 1 block area), submitted with the application, will be considered when reviewing applications in an effort to minimize any unanticipated adverse effects to nearby residents.
 - (a) The Chief will provide an example of a notification form to City Clerk staff to distribute to applicants to assist with acquiring written permission from neighbors.
3. The Chief reserves the right to deny issuance of any permit based upon the health, safety and welfare of the community. In addition, the Mayor may place any requirements upon the permit deemed necessary to minimize adverse effects upon the community or surrounding neighborhood.
4. If the Police Department receives complaints from the public during an event for which a permit has been issued, a police officer(s) will respond and may ask to see the noise permit that has been issued by the City. The officer(s) may also direct the permittee to reduce or immediately cease the noise affiliated with the event.
 - (a) Following verbal directive from a police officer to reduce or cease the noise affiliated with an event, a permittee must comply or a citation may be issued to the applicant for disturbance or breach of the peace.
